

CPRsouth8/ CPRafrica 2013
Innovation & Entrepreneurship in ICT: Changing Asia / Africa

5 - 7 September 2013
 Akbar class room, Infosys Campus, Mysore

*the paper presenter

Day 1
Registration 8h30 - 9h00
Opening 9h00 - 9h30	Welcome comments from CPRsouth (Ashok Jhunjunwala), RIA (Alison Gillwald), IDRC (Anindya Chatterjee) & Ford Foundation (Ravina Aggarwal)
Session 1 9h30 - 11h00	Opening Panel: 'State of Technology, Policy and Implementation of Financial Inclusion in India' Chair: Supriya Singh (Australia) Ashok Jhunjunwala (India) Samit Ghosh (India)
Tea break 11h00 - 11h20
Session 2 11h20 - 12h30	Mobiles and Money (3 papers)	Chair: Ashok Jhunjunwala (India) Discussant: Supriya Singh (Australia) Mobile banking services in the East African Community (EAC): Challenges to the existing legislative and regulatory frameworks in the EAC Joseph Nyaga* (Kenya) Mobile Money and the informal business sector in Africa: Bridging the financial gap Mariama Deen-Swarray (South Africa/Sierra Leone), Christoph Stork (South Africa/Germany) & Ali Ndiwalana* (Uganda) Technology Enabled Financial Inclusion and Evidence-Based Policy for the Underbanked: A study of Remote Indigenous Australia Vinita Godinho* (Australia)
Lunch 12h30 - 14h00

Session 3 14h00 - 15h10	Gender in ICT policy and regulation (3 papers)	Chair: Marcio Iorio Aranha (Brazil) Discussant: Dorothy Okello (Uganda) Lifting the veil on ICT gender indicators in Africa Alison Gillwald (South Africa), Mariama Deen-Swarray* (South Africa/Sierra Leone) & Ashleigh Morrell (South Africa) Can women benefit from cyberspace as a public space? Mehri Shahzeidi* (Iran) How gender is embedded in the national ICT policy of Malawi Frank Makoza* (South Africa)
Tea break 15h10 - 15h30
Session 4 15h30 - 16h40	Drivers of Policy change (3 papers)	Chair: Ravina Aggarwal (India) Discussant: Helani Galpaya (Sri Lanka) The Future of Broadband in Africa Christoph Stork* (South Africa/Germany), Enrico Calandro (South Africa/Italy) & Ranmalee Gamage (Sri Lanka) Mobile Internet as the key driver to Internet growth in Kenya Nyambura Ndung'u* (Kenya) & Timothy Waema (Kenya) Perceptions of Senegalese Telecommunications Policy Experts on Factors Affecting the Policy Reform in the Sector Cheikh Drame* (Senegal)
Session 5 16h40- 17h50	Gender and other divides (3 papers)	Chair: Ang Peng Hwa (Singapore) Discussant: Taruna Ramessur (Mauritius) Separating myth from reality: Do location and gender matter for mobile ownership? Sriganesh Lokanathan (Sri Lanka) & Ranmalee Gamage* (Sri Lanka) Gender and entrepreneurship in the informal sector: an African perspective Mpho Moyo* (South Africa/Zimbabwe) & Mariama Deen-Swarray (South Africa/Sierra Leone) Attracting and Keeping Bangladeshi Women in the ICT Profession

		Jude Genilo* (Bangladesh/Philippines), Monami Haque (Bangladesh) & Marium Akther (Bangladesh)
Dinner 19h00
Dinner speaker for CPRsouth8/CPRafrica2013: Bindu Ananth, President of IFMR Trust
Day 2
Session 6 9h00 - 10h30	Assessing ICT policy and regulation (4 papers)	Chair: Abiodun Jagun (Nigeria) Discussant: Reg Coutts (Australia) Comparative Analysis of ICT Regulation Frameworks: A Study of Seven Countries Giri Hallur* (India) & Dikshant Wadwa (India) International Spectrum Management Regime: A Case of Regulatory Lock-in for the Developing Countries? Mohamed El-Moghazi* (Egypt) A cross-national analysis of the impact of bureaucratic structures of the regulatory authorities on the VoIP regulation Moinul Zaber* (USA/Bangladesh) Challenges in Promotion of Universal ICT Access Services in Rural Malawi Tawonga Kayira* (Malawi)
Tea break 10h30 - 11h00
Session 7 11h00 - 12h30	What works and what does not (4 papers)	Chair: Koesmarihati Sugondo (Indonesia) Discussant: Kameshnee Naidoo (South Africa) Sustainability of Government initiated (ICT) Information and Communication Technology projects for development: A Comparative study on Malaysia and India Jitendra Kumar Nayak* (Malaysia/India) The relevance of telecenters in the delivery of government services: Learnings from Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Ayesha Zainudeen (Sri Lanka), Helani Galpaya (Sri Lanka) & Ranjula Senaratna-Perera* (Sri Lanka) An Innovative ICT approach to evaluate and enhance delivery of Government of Tamil Nadu advisory messages to farmers Ashok Jhunjunwala (India), Jayalakshmi Umadikar* (India) & Suma Prashant (India) ICT- Enabled Treatment Adherence and Follow-up System towards Successful Implementation of Revised National

		Tuberculosis Control Programme (RNTCP), India Sathya Priya Kittusami* (India), Gayathri Gurumurthy (India), Suma Prashant (India), Ashok Jhunjhunwala (India), Padmanesan Narasimhan (India), Anees Kottapalam (India) & Pradeep Ray (India)
Lunch 12h30 - 14h00
Session 8 14h00 - 15h30	Benefits of using ICT (4 papers)	Chair: Myeong-Cheol Park (South Korea) Discussant: Ben Akoh (Nigeria) The Impacts of Fibre-Optic Broadband on the Value Chain of the Tourism Sector in Kenya Timothy Waema (Kenya) & Charles Katua* (Kenya) Do accesses and productive uses of mobile telephony connect to income benefits? A case study on Teleuse@BOP4 survey in Indonesia Ibrahim Kholilul Rohman* (Sweden/Indonesia) Contextual assessment of adoption and use of information and communication technologies (ICTs) by small businesses in Lagos, Nigeria Fortune Nwaiwu* (Nigeria) Motivations, concerns and strategies of Facebook users in Iran Elaheh Shabani* (Iran)
Tea break 15h10 - 15h30
Session 9 15h30 - 17h00	Expert Policy/Regulatory Panel on the use of evidence	Rajendra Kumar (Department of Electronics and Information Technology, Government of India) speaks for 20 minutes on the use of evidence and policy intellectuals play in the Indian context. Moderator: Helani Galpaya Rajendra Kumar; Reg Coutts (Australian Communications and Media Authority); Abiodun Jagun (Advisor to Minister of Communication, Nigeria); Monica Kerrets Makau (Communication Commission of Kenya); Giuditta de Prato (Institute for Prospective Technological Studies, Spain)
Day 3
Session 10	Challenges and	Chair: Tim Waema (Kenya)

9h00 - 10h30	other applications (4 papers)	Discussant: Enrico Calandro (South Africa/Italy) The gap between mobile application developers and the poor consumers: Lessons from Kenya Tonny Omwansa* (Kenya) & Angela Crandall(Kenya) ICT Applications for Employability Enhancement: An Asian Case Study Yvonne Loh* (Singapore) Understanding Mobile Phone Based Livestock (Cattle) Management and information System for beef fattening project which Impact on poverty alleviation of beneficiaries: A pilot Study and innovation from Bangladesh Hasib Ahsan* (Bangladesh) Upland high school students as information providers Jaime Manalo IV* (Philippines)
Tea break 10h30 - 11h00
Session 11 11h00-12h30	Regional reflections on research priorities Moderator: Ambika Sharma (IDRC) Discussants: Marcio Iorio Aranha (Latin America); Alison Gillwald (Africa); Jean-Paul Simon (Europe); Rohan Samarajiva (Asia-Pacific)
Session 12 12h30 - 13h15	CPRsouth and CPRafrica: Future directions and presentation of awards Moderated by Ashok Jhunjhunwala & Alison Gillwald
13h15-14h30 Lunch
City tour followed by dinner		